

THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA

The School of Arts and Sciences and
The Department of Politics present

“Postwar Croatia: Challenges and Opportunities of a Catholic Society in Transition”

a public lecture by

Boris A. Miksic

President and CEO of the Cortec Corporation
Author of American Dream: A Guy from Croatia
Honorary Croatian Consul General to the United States
Candidate for the Presidency of Croatia

Wednesday 6 October 2004
5.30pm
The Auditorium, Caldwell Hall

Phone 202-319-5115 for more information.

OUTLINE OF EVENTS
FOR THE VISIT OF
BORIS A. MIKSIC
TO
THE CATHOLIC UNIVERSITY OF AMERICA
6 OCTOBER 2004

- 12.00: Arrival at Dean Poos's office (109 McMahon Hall); proceed to lunch in the Edward Pryzbyla University Center with Dean Poos and selected faculty (including Department of Politics faculty amongst others)
- 1.30: Meet with faculty involved in CUA's Center for the Study of Energy and Environmental Stewardship (materials regarding the Center, and the four-course sequence in CUA's Undergraduate Honors Program on "The Environment, Energy and Policy" (materials on both will be sent to Mr Miksic ahead of his visit).
- 2.30: Walking tour of CUA campus
- 3.30: Tour of Vitreous State Laboratory (materials on the VSL will be sent to Mr Miksic ahead of his visit).
- 5.00: Prep time for lecture, "down time"
- 5.30: Lecture, "Postwar Croatia: Challenges and Opportunities of a Catholic Society in Transition", Auditorium, Caldwell Hall
- 7.00: cocktails/reception, Vincent Walter Room, Curley Hall; meet Very Revd. David M. O'Connell, President of The Catholic University of America
- 7.30: dinner, Vincent Walter Room, Curley Hall