

WHITE BEAR TOWNSHIP

Croatian troupe plans performances

A troupe of Croatian folk dancers will give two free performances in the Twin Cities next week, courtesy of a White Bear Township company owned by a Croatian official.

The Zagreb Folk Dance Ensemble will perform Tuesday and Thursday, courtesy of Cortec, which is owned by Boris Miksic of North Oaks. Miksic serves in the city assembly for Zagreb, Croatia.

Boris
Miksic

The troupe, now on tour in the United States, presents the folklore of Croatian villages through dance and costuming.

The group will give a one-hour show at 7 p.m. Tuesday in the Croatian Hall, 445 Second Ave., South St. Paul; and a two-hour performance Thursday at the Minnesota History Center, 345 W. Kellogg Blvd., St. Paul.

— Mary Bauer